

Going to an Event

Able Company encourages all prospective members to attend an event, in order to better understand WWII reenacting and living history. Able Company is often able to outfit prospective members with loaner uniforms and equipment, so that they may participate in an event.

Probationary Member Status

Probationary members will be assigned a sponsor by the unit recruiter. The sponsor will assess and assist you in achieving full membership status. Please see bylaws for additional information.

Probationary Member Requirements

- Submit a completed application for membership to the unit secretary
- Prospective members must not have any felonies or misdemeanors on their record that would prohibit participation in events
- Learn and abide by the bylaws of Able Company and understand the culture of the unit
- Procure the basic uniforms and equipment necessary to participate in events

Vendors

There are many vendors that sell original and reproduction uniforms and equipment.

Uniforms and Equipment

World War II Impressions:

<http://wwiiimpressions.com/>

At The Front:

<http://www.atthefront.com/>

What Price Glory

<http://www.whatpriceglory.com/>

Soldier of Fortune

<http://www.sofmilitary.co.uk/>

Quartermaster Inspector

<http://www.qmi.be/>

Paratrooper FR

<http://www.paratrooper.fr/en/>

Helmets

J. Murray Inc. 1944

<http://jmurrayinc1944.com/>

Weapons

Depending on the state in which you live, you may not be able to legally possess some types of weapons. Please check your local laws before purchasing a weapon. In addition to your local gun dealers, there are online sources through which one can purchase weapons for WWII living history.

Gun Broker

<http://www.gunbroker.com/>

Guns America

<http://www.gunsamerica.com/>

Auction Arms

<http://www.auctionarms.com/>

Civilian Marksmanship Program

<http://www.odcmp.com/>

A COMPANY

1ST BATTALION

502ND PARACHUTE INFANTRY REGIMENT

PROSPECTIVE MEMBER GUIDE